Partnering to achieve success

Through ongoing investment in training and accreditation, Axis First has built relationships with key partners, including Microsoft, Computer Associates, Hewlett Packard, Intel, Veritas and Avaya.

Membership of their partner programs gives our technical team access to extensive support resources, enabling us to refer technical issues directly to the software vendors where necessary.

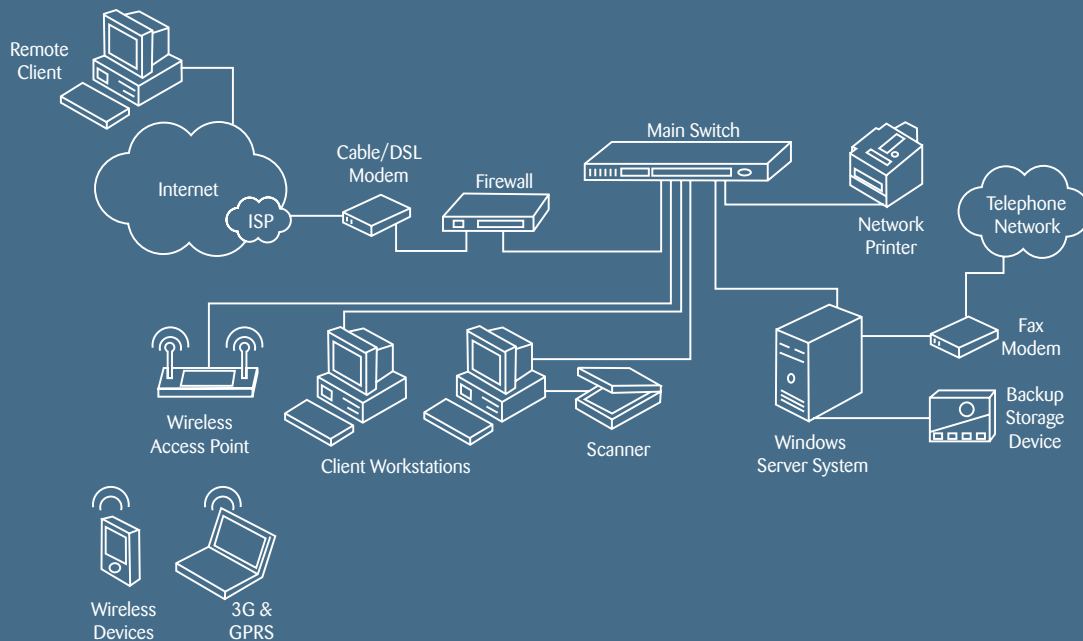

Axis First offers complete technology solutions to small and medium-sized businesses.

If you're a dynamic, forward-thinking company that wants to maximise efficiency and productivity with the latest technology to stay ahead of the competition, then talk to Axis First.

Our mission is to offer corporate standard IT at a price your business can afford. We can provide both the infrastructure and the expertise that will enable you to realise the maximum return from your IT investment, and Support Services that allow you to make the most of that investment.

Whether or not you have your own in-house IT Dept, or if you need to supplement your existing IT resources, Axis First has your solution.

Take a fresh look at your IT needs and see the benefits of a professional, pro-active Technology Service
