increase efficiency stay informed

The New Features Overview, available from the axisfirst website, describes over one hundred significant new features available with axis® diplomat 2012. Many of these are designed to help improve your efficiency and get even more from your axis diplomat system. Others are designed to help you make more informed business decisions, with more information at your fingertips.

MAKING YOUR BUSINESS MORE EFFICIENT

This release includes a number of features and benefits aimed at increasing the efficiency of your staff using axis diplomat.

New Monitor functions and User Interface improvements such as direct export to Excel mean that users can spend their time more effectively whilst more than one hundred other developments included in the new release combine to offer a system that is more flexible, more configurable and more controllable.

BETTER DECISION MAKING SUPPORT

Many of the headline developments of axis® diplomat 2012 are aimed at providing better management information with easier access.

Real-Time Business Intelligence, extending Business Intelligence into the Nominal Ledger and the addition of Nominal Ledger Monitors all help provide the data to back up those all-important top-level business decisions.

When it comes to running a business, information is king!

STAY INFORMED ON THE MOVE

More of the key features of axis® diplomat 2012 are designed to help people access key business information whilst on the move.

More and more people are using the latest technology, whether that is SmartPhones (the ubiquitous Apple iPhone or the Android equivalents) tablets, from the iPad and its Android-based competitors to the very latest Windows 8-based tablets and slate PCs.

Whether you are using online dashboards on your tablet, using vCards on call emails sent to your SmartPhone or accessing your system remotely, axis® diplomat 2012 can help you keep in touch with your business.
